

JOE'S GREATEST HITS

For nine years Joe Porzio's political cartoons have appeared regularly in the East Boston Community News.

Joe's work with the Community News is also well known outside of East Boston and has graced the walls of well known figures such as Mayor Kevin H. White, former State Secretary of Transportation Fred Salvucci, and Boston Housing Inspection Commissioner John Vitagliano.

On this page is a sampling of some of what we feel were Joe's best efforts.
